Port Jefferson Ambulance Corps Inc selects Quick Med Claims to provide their emergency medical transportation billing and reimbursement.

Pittsburgh, Pa (July 2010) Quick Med Claims (QMC) announces that it has entered into a new agreement with Port Jefferson Volunteer Ambulance Corps Inc to provide emergency medical transportation billing and reimbursement.

Port Jefferson Volunteer Ambulance Corp serves multiple municipalities on Long Island (Suffolk County) New York. The service has not billed for EMS transports before and after an extensive review, the leadership has selected QMC.

According to Jason Lazerus, Chief of Port Jefferson Volunteer Ambulance Corps Inc. "This is the first time we will be implementing an EMS transport fee and we are very excited to begin this process with Quick Med Claims". Lazerus also added " The new fee is structured with concern for the medical and financial health of Port Jefferson residents and visitors. The program has been designed to minimize out-of-pocket expenses for our residents".

Quick Med Claims President and Owner, Michael Lewis, anticipates the new partnership with Port Jefferson will contribute a significant amount of revenue for Port Jefferson VAC over the initial term of the agreement. Lewis goes on to state "We are very excited to have this relationship with Port Jefferson; as an organization QMC is committed to the most compliant billing processes, we will attempt to maximize Port Jefferson's opportunities for reimbursement while being extremely sensitive to the patients concerns and needs".

The QMC Team is working with Port Jefferson leadership to put all of the necessary processes in place to carry out the billing program. The EMS transport fees have been set by the local authorities.

About Quick Med Claims
