Denise Stawartz Retires

Pittsburgh (May 20, 2010) — After ten (10) years with Quick Med Claims (QMC), Denise Stawartz retires to enjoy life with her family. Ms. Stawartz has served in a variety of capacities during her tenure at QMC. She has served as a Billing Specialist, Senior Billing Specialist and as an Account Manager. She was assigned to Guardian Air and Guardian Medical Transport for a number of years. Most recently, Ms. Stawartz was a part of the Posting Group.

“Denise has been a part of the QMC landscape for so long that it’s hard to imagine coming to work without her here,” says Janet Tamborino, one of the Billing Directors at QMC. “She has been a part of the team for many years.” Denise is recognized for her great sense of humor and her signature laugh.

The QMC Team celebrated her career during the Monthly All Staff Meeting on Wednesday May 19, 2010 with a cake and a special presentation by the Owners, Harry Sichi and Michael Lewis. “Denise has been a part of making QMC a special place to work,” according to Michael Lewis. “She and her husband Wayne were good enough to open their home for company picnics over the years.” Denise was presented with a special gift in recognition of her many contributions to the organization. In addition the QMC leadership hosted a luncheon in her honor on Thursday May 20, 2010.

Ms. Stawartz and her husband reside in Peters Township. She is looking forward to enjoying more quality time with Wayne . . . he is retiring from UPS in June.
